

Within the framework of the Hapi team's preparation to collect the team to participating in the International Robot 2023 Competition, we conducted the first rounds at the Faculty of Artificial Intelligence in El Alamein on Wednesday 10/19/2022. And, present a seminar about Roboboat competition, the participated in the team benefits and how to join with the Hapi team. 43 students attended the seminar and in the end of the day open call for join in the team. after the end of this outreach, present 13 students to enter the team, then prepare the interview with the student to select between them. Finally, 6 students participated in our team.

