

California State University, Los Angeles

Community and Outreach

The main outreach activities our team engaged in was engineering presentations regarding our organization to incoming freshman to the university and interested students.

Our team also presented at Cal State LA's Boeing Day to high school students who were interested in the STEM field and to Boeing Executives.