

Maritime State University named after Admiral G.I. Nevelskoy

Community and Outreach

We actively participate in the popularization of underwater robotics among the population, we participate in city holidays and an exhibition, for example, on the day of Russia on June 13, we presented a pool on the city square where anyone could control our AUV from the remote control.

